

National Board for Professional Teaching Standards

In West Contra Costa Unified School
District

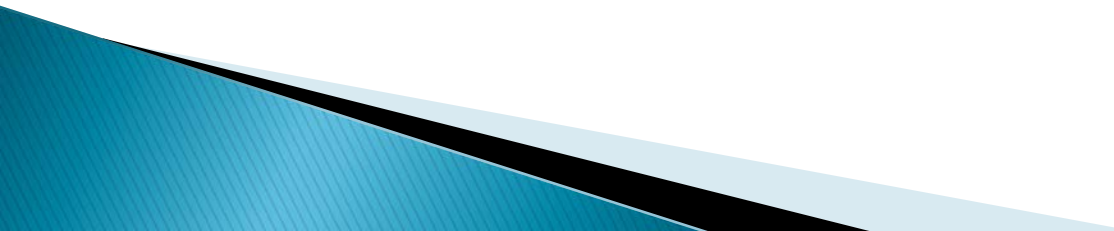

Focus is on Improving Student Learning in Five Core Areas

National Board Certified Teachers...

- ▶ are committed to students and their learning,
 - ▶ know their subjects and how to teach those subjects,
 - ▶ are responsible for managing and monitoring student learning,
 - ▶ think systematically about their practice and learn from experience,
 - ▶ are members of learning communities.
-

To Become a National Board Certified Teacher:

Teachers demonstrate accomplished teaching practices in Five Core Areas by:

- ▶ Filming themselves teaching
 - ▶ Thinking deeply about and writing reflective entries involving their teaching practice
 - ▶ Submitting a portfolio of work for review by outstanding educators from across the country
-

Today We Celebrate:

Juliet Solis–Suval, Transition Program

Exceptional Needs Specialist/Early Childhood through Young Adulthood

Marcella McClinton–Jamerson, Wilson Elementary

Literacy: Reading–Language Arts/Early and Middle Childhood

