

CULTURE OF LEARNING: Are all students engaged in the work of the lesson from start to finish?

1. INEFFECTIVE	2. MINIMALLY EFFECTIVE	3. DEVELOPING	4. PROFICIENT	5. SKILLFUL
Very few or no students complete instructional tasks, volunteer responses and/or ask appropriate questions.	Some students complete instructional tasks, volunteer responses and/or ask appropriate questions.	Most students complete instructional tasks, volunteer responses and/or ask appropriate questions.	All or almost all students complete instructional tasks, volunteer responses and/or ask appropriate questions.	All descriptors for Level 4 are met, and at least one of the following types of evidence is demonstrated:
Very few or no students follow behavioral expectations and/or directions.	Some students follow behavioral expectations and/or directions.	Most students follow behavioral expectations and/or directions.	All or almost all students follow behavioral expectations and/or directions.	Students assume responsibility for routines and procedures and execute them in an orderly, efficient and self-directed manner, requiring no direction or narration from the teacher.
Students do not execute transitions, routines and procedures in an orderly and efficient manner only some of the time and/or require substantial direction from the teacher.	Students execute transitions, routines and procedures in an orderly and efficient manner most of the time, though they may require some direction from the teacher.	Students execute transitions, routines and procedures in an orderly and efficient manner with minimal direction or narration from the teacher.	Students execute transitions, routines and procedures in an orderly and efficient manner with minimal direction or narration from the teacher.	Students demonstrate a sense of ownership of behavioral expectations by holding each other accountable for meeting them.
Students are left without work to do for a significant portion of the class period.	Students are idle while waiting for the teacher or left with nothing to do for one or two minutes at a time.	Students are idle for short periods of time (less than one minute at a time) while waiting for the teacher to provide directions, when finishing assigned work early, or during transitions.	Class has a quick pace and students are engaged in the work of the lesson from start to finish. Students who finish assigned work early engage in meaningful learning without interrupting other students' learning.

Core Teacher Skills

Maintaining High Behavior Expectations

- Providing specific, concrete, sequential, and observable directions for behavior and academics.
- Addressing all negative and off-task student behavior immediately and in a way that does not slow or disrupt lesson momentum.
- Issuing logical and appropriate consequences as needed without hesitation, such that consequences are successful in changing student behavior.
- Using voice and presence to maintain authority and convey caring for students.
- Investing time in knowing individual students and in forming relationships to best support their learning.
- Developing an active interest in students' well-being and demonstrating that interest through his/her engagement with students.

Maximizing Instructional Time

- Using efficient techniques for starting and ending lessons.
- Using efficient routines and procedures.
- Responding to student requests without interrupting instruction.
- Planning for and providing work for students to "say yes to" and using strategies to maintain a quick pace throughout the lesson.

Core Teacher Skills

Planning and Delivering Lessons Effectively

- Allocating instructional time to address the most important content for the grade or course.
- Developing and clearly communicating a well-framed, standards-aligned and appropriately rigorous objective to describe the goal(s) of the lesson.
- Delivering lesson content clearly, accurately, and with coherence. No inaccurate information is conveyed.
- Developing and/or using appropriately demanding instructional materials, such as texts, questions, problems, exercises and assessments.
- Developing a vision for student success and standards-aligned, big goal(s) that are ambitious, measurable and appropriate for all students.
- Developing and/or using a long-term, sequential plan that leads to mastery of the most important content for the grade or course.
- Developing and/or using daily lesson activities that are well sequenced and move students toward mastery of grade-level standards.
- Developing and providing accommodations and modifications as needed to ensure all students are able to attain learning goals.
- Considering students' IEP goals and other specific learning needs in developing learning goals and preparing lessons (where applicable).

Core Teacher Skills

Maintaining High Academic Expectations

- Promoting the persistence of students to get correct, defended responses.
 - Using an appropriate tone when responding to student answers.
 - Requiring that students use complete sentences, correct grammar and academic language.
- Building Thinking Skills
- Structuring and delivering lesson activities so that students do an appropriate amount of the thinking required by the lesson.
 - Posing questions or providing lesson activities that require students to cite evidence to support their thinking.
 - Providing opportunities for students to respond to and build on their peers' ideas.
 - Providing support necessary for students to complete instructional tasks requiring higher-order thinking skills.

Core Teacher Skills

Leading Instruction

- Conveying or providing accurate content and all content necessary for students to achieve the learning goal(s).
- Using explanations of content that are clear, coherent and support student understanding of content.
- Differentiating instruction as needed in response to student learning needs, including enrichment and extra support.

Checking for Understanding of Content

- Accurately checking for whether students understand the key content needed to master the lesson at key moments in the lesson (e.g., during direct instruction, before independent practice, at a transition and with an exit ticket at the end of a lesson).
- Developing and/or using informal and formal assessments that yield useable data on students' progress toward grade-level standards.

Responding to Student Misunderstanding

- Providing feedback that affirms correctly understood content and student progress toward the lesson objective and clarifies misunderstood content.
- Recognizing the root of student errors and re-teaching or re-framing content to address the underlying cause of student misunderstanding.

Note to observers: Your goal is to examine what students produce throughout the lesson and to assess the extent to which all students receive the opportunity to demonstrate their learning and the extent to which all students make progress towards learning goals. This includes students' oral responses and written work and should reflect most students, not just a sampling.

Tntp Core Classroom Walk-Through Tool

The Tntp Core Walk-Through Tool is a companion to the full Tntp Core Teaching Rubric and is aligned to the same vital performance areas. This tool can be used alone to guide peer-to-peer feedback, personal reflection and non-evaluative coaching. Observers who have experience with the Tntp Core Teaching Rubric may also use the Walk-Through Tool as a note-taking and feedback resource for all classroom observations.

When you visit a classroom, ask yourself the four Essential Questions and record your notes and/or evidence in the box below. A solid "yes" to an Essential Question merits a "4" rating.

1. Are all students engaged in the work of the lesson from start to finish?

RATING: _____

2. Are all students working with content aligned to the appropriate standards for their subject and grade?

RATING: _____

What did you see students doing, reading and working with? What work do the grade-level standards call for?

3. Are all students responsible for doing the thinking in this classroom?

RATING: _____

4. Do all students demonstrate that they are learning?
